REF.

The diagram illustrates a hexagonal plate with a central circular hole and four smaller circular holes at the corners. Two concentric circles are drawn around the central hole, with the inner one labeled '0' and the outer one labeled '1.25'. An arrow points from the label '0' to the inner circle.

A horizontal number line with a vertical tick mark at 0 on the left and a vertical tick mark at 1.25 on the right. A diagonal tick mark is drawn at the midpoint between 0 and 1.25, which is 0.625.
